Nottingham University Press

Nottingham University Press (NUP) was the academic press of the University of Nottingham, England.

Founded in 1992 by Dr Des Cole and Dr Phil Garnsworthy, the press specialised in scientific and technical publishing, particularly in the areas of animal and food science.

In 2012, NUP was purchased by 5m Books Ltd, who continue to manage and distribute its publications.

The original editions were reissued in 2023 with new covers as paperback print on demand titles.
